SPONSORS FROM VIRGINIA

Miss Annie Gray Will Represent the Richmond District, and Miss Spicer, of Petersburg, Was Appointed by the Sons,

As time draws near for the raunion of the United Confederate Veterans to be held at Louisville, Ky., attention is turned to the fair young women who will act as sponsors and maids of honor for the men who gave their best for the cause they loved.

The presence of these pretty girls from the various States is always a bright fea-ture of the great reunions, and the social functions arranged in their honor are Fifteen of Virginia's fairest daughters will be present. Two sponsors, one for the veterans and one for the Sons of Veterans. The former will have a maid of honor for the State at large and one for each of the Congressional districts. Besides these, Miss Mary Watts Woods, the daughter of Captain Micajah Woods, of Charlottesville, Va., will be chief maid of honor to Miss Varina Jefferson Hayes, the sponsor for the entire South. Hayes and Miss Woods will be the honor-ed guests in Louisville of the United Confederate Veteran Association of the South. It is a high honor that is be-stowed on this beautiful Virginia girl and one for which Miss Woods is eminently one for which Miss woods is eminently fitted. Although a very young girl, she enjoys an enviable reputation for her graces of person and mind. She is regarded as one of the fairest types of beauty and refinement and is connected with a large number of prominent families in both Virginia and Kentucky. Her father, served with distinction while a father served with distinction, while a youth, in the Confederate Army and is general of the Second Brigade in the Virginina Division of Confederate Veterans, which he will command at the reunion.

The sponsor for the veterans is Miss Minnie Boyd Spiller, of Wytheville, a most attractive young girl, who combines with charming personality a loveliness of char-acter and a patriotic fervor. Her maid of honor for the State at large is Miss Jane

Bladder troubles most always result from a derangement of the kidneys and a cure is a derangement of the kidneys and a cure is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. If you are feeling badly you can make no mistake by taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases.

will be happy to assist him to his grave in one of eleven cemeteries.

Two hundred and twenty-four lawyers argue cases in five city courts; it takes about eighty-seven churches to counteract the influence of 197 saloons; thirty banks, with a combined capital of 83, 764, 750, help store away Richmond's money; it takes 503 white procers and 62 white butchers to supply the citizens; 44 dentists live off the people's pain; it takes 157 shoemakers and repairers, white and colored, to handle the city's old shoes.

One would be surprised at the number of the similarly-named persons in Richmond. The laurel must be awarded the Johnson's, with 506 on their roll, but the proverbial Smith, Jones and Brown come next, with 426, 467 and 386, respectively. A very few spell their names Smyth, or Smythe, and Browne, but they are not greatly in evidence.
